Terms and Conditions

Running Wild Expeditions

Running Wild Expeditions is an extension of Running Wild Media and all trips are meant to give participants the experience of participating in a typical Running Wild Expedition, meaning, a custom made wildlife-adventure that you won't get anywhere else. The emphasis on these trips are wildlife encounters, wildlife photography/videography opportunities, opportunities for creative coaching as well as cultural and environmental immersion. These expeditions are physically and mentally challenging, requiring participants to perform physical activity, risk exposure to adverse weather conditions and deal with unpredictable situations potentially involving wild animals.

Payment

Trip rates are based off of in-country travel costs, third party tour operator costs, guide fees, trip insurance, accommodations and all excursions. Not included in total trip cost are food and beverage costs as prices are impossible to predict, gratuities, phone data, immunizations, travel documents unless stated otherwise, souvenirs, extra excursions/activities not on itinerary, damages to property, as well as airfare since prices differ dramatically between port of origin and flight times.

Trip Payment Schedule

To reserve a spot on an expedition, a non-refundable deposit of $500.00 dollars is required at either 120 days before departure or until the trip is booked.

The remainder of the trip cost is due 60 days prior to trip departure.

For reservations made within 60 days of the departure date, full payment is required when the reservation is accepted.

Payments can be made via Check. Contact justin.runningwild@gmail.com for details.

Cancelation and Refund

The initial deposit is non-refundable as it is used to purchase travel insurance and book itinerary.

If participant wishes to cancel their spot on an expedition 45 - 60 days prior to expedition departure, they will receive full refund not including deposit. If participant cancels 30-45 days before departure, they will receive 75% refund excluding deposit. If participant cancels 15-30 days before trip departure, they will receive 50% refund excluding deposit. If participant cancels 1-15 days before departure, participant is liable to lose their refund but is at the full discretion of Running Wild Expeditions. If participant initiates cancelation of an in-progress expedition, they will not be eligible to receive a refund.

Arriving late or leaving an Expedition in progress, for any reason whatsoever, will not result in a refund, and no refunds will be made for any unused portions of an Expedition. If the Expedition in progress is canceled by operator, the participants will receive a prorated refund based on the number of days not completed on the Expedition. The tour operator has no responsibility for any expenses, including any non-refundable expenses, incurred by the participants in preparing for a cancelled Expedition or for any additional arrangements should the participants embark prior to the scheduled group departure date.

Running Wild Expeditions reserves the right to cancel any Expedition because of inadequate enrollment that makes the Expedition economically infeasible to operate or because of good-faith concerns with respect to the safety, health, or welfare of the participants. In which case, participants will receive full refund prior to departure including deposit.

Itineraries
